Dear Morgan,

I cannot thank you enough for your hard work, dedication, and follow through with handling my divorce. I value the level of professionalism you held while responding to all of the inquiries that my ex and myself had through this difficult process. I also truly appreciated the fact that you attended court dates with me. I don't think I could have handled that piece without your presence and assistance. You were very easy to work with and always answered my inquiries in a manner that I could understand. This has been a long process and I am so thankful to have had such a great lawyer.

Sincerely,
